THE MINISTER, OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI P. R. DAS MUNSHT): (a) The Uruguay Round of Multilateral Trade Negotiations launched in September, 1986 are the most diversified and com. plex multilateral trade negotiations eld so far. The trend of the negotiams has been that the progress has i | slow in the areas of interest to d loping countries while attempts ar leing made to accelerate progress on v issues which a're of importance to developed countries.

(t t is true that the Government of tl. Jnited States of America is treat! lack of adequate protection of intellt Jual property rights' as a basi$_s$ for imposing trade sanctions.

(c) India considers thes$_e$ negotiations as an opportunity for stemming, erosion of the GATT system and wants. to preserve the basic principles ol GATT and strengthen its multilateral rules and disciplines. We ar$_e$ anxious to ensure that the flexibility available to developing countries in the use of trade policy measures and the recognition of the need$_s$ for special and differential treatment for them are preserved and further strengthened. We also feel that developing countries should not be required to make concessions that are inconsistent with their i developmental, IfLnancial and trade needs. India's stand in the Uruguay Round is guided by these approaches. However, multilateral trade negotiations like the Uruguay Round involve complex negotiations and the position to be adopted by India on each of the subjects covered by these negotiations would have to be evolved on the basis of developments in the coming years.

(d) India would strive to safeguard its interest by seeking that any new multilateral disciplines that ar$_e$ developer take due account of its national policies and objectives. Efforts are also being made to widen the support for the Indian point of view by trying to coordinate positions with other developing countries.
